In July of 1915 a compatriot of Leon's, Albert Debucquoy of the 3e Jagers En Voet (Foot Rifles), died at Christchurch. He was given a military funeral and photographs of the event survive. In one scene (left) Leon is seen amongst the chief mourners walking behind the hearse accompanied by an officer, possibly the one he had travelled with, Albert was buried at Elmer's End.

As Leon recovered he took up orderly duties and was photographed (below standing on the right) at the hospital in this role. He spent most of 1915 at Beckenham but by the end of the year he was considered fit for full time work. He was released from the army.
